

RAAU

- Black
- Grapefruit- to cantaloupe-sized mass
- Irregular, lobed shape
- Often detached, floating on surface

AMGR

- Very Firm Eggmass
- Golden
- Orange -sized mass
- Smooth, rounded shape
- Sometimes green algae buildup in jelly layer

AMMA

- Dark Brown/Tan
- Size of a large, oblong grape
- Fewer, larger (>2 mm) eggs, widely spaced

PSRE

- Tan
- Size of a large, oblong grape
- Many, very small (<1.5 mm) eggs, closely packed

Long-toed Salamander AMMA
 Small packets < 2 inches long
 Few eggs: 1-25
 Eggs between  $\frac{1}{16}$  and  $\frac{1}{8}$  inch in diameter

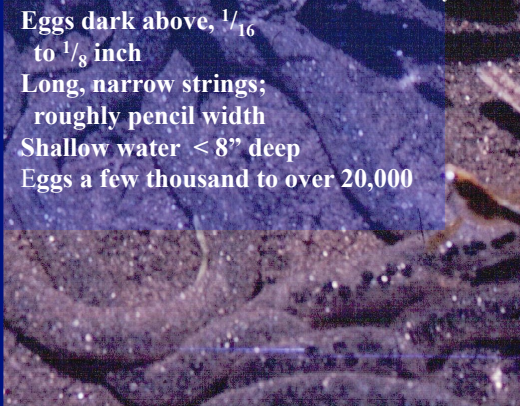

© Klaus Richter 1998

Western Toad BUBO
 Eggs dark above,  $\frac{1}{16}$  to  $\frac{1}{8}$  inch
 Long, narrow strings; roughly pencil width
 Shallow water < 8" deep
 Eggs a few thousand to over 20,000

© Marc Hayes 1994

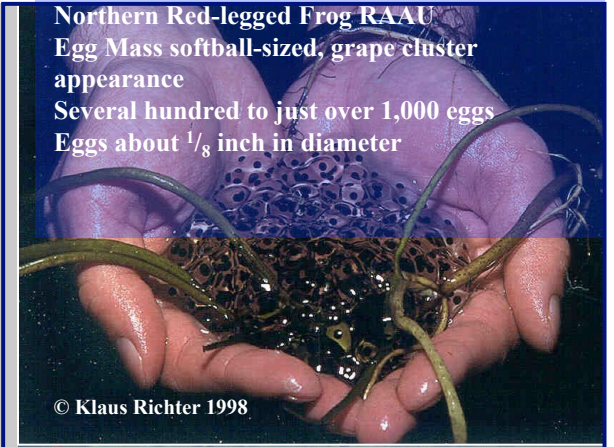

© Klaus Richter 1998

Northwestern Salamander AMGR
 $\pm$  round; firm jelly; orange- to grapefruit-sized

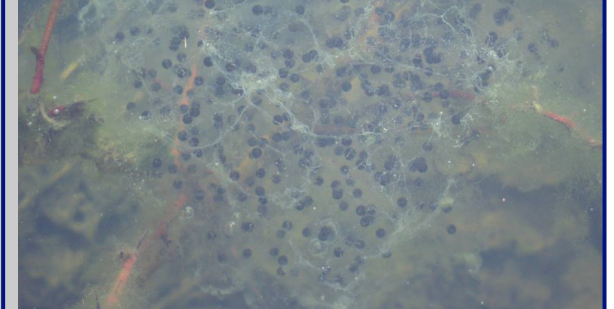

Sorin Damian 1995

Northern Red-legged Frog RAAU
 Egg Mass softball-sized; grape cluster appearance
 Several hundred to just over 1,000 eggs
 Eggs about  $\frac{1}{8}$  inch in diameter

© Klaus Richter 1998

Pacific Tree Frog PSRE
 Packets < 2.5 inches long
 Eggs 10-80
 Eggs tiny:  $\leq \frac{1}{16}$  inch in diameter

© Klaus Richter 1998

